

VERMONT FARM BUREAU[®]
INC.

Vermont Current Use & Land Stewardship

Panelist Discussion & Workshop

Managing working lands for the future

*Learn.
Ask questions.
Protect the future
of your land.*

Why engage in the Vermont Current Use and Land Stewardship Workshop? Get the advice that matters before making decisions about your land. Vermont Farm Bureau brings together Current Use and Land experts to help you avoid costly mistakes, protect your property, and keep Vermont's working lands productive for generations.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- How the Use Value Appraisal Program works
- Eligibility, benefits, and landowner responsibilities
- Forest management plans and compliance pitfalls
- Water quality, invasive species, and technical resources
- How to balance conservation with economic goals

INTERACTIVE LANDOWNER CASE STUDY

Work through a sample woodland or mixed-use property—eligibility, stewardship opportunities, management priorities, and long-term goals.

November 6th, 2026

3:15 - 5:15

Social Hour & Dinner to follow

Buckridge Barns 8470 Rte 116, Hinesburg, VT 05461

ASK THE EXPERTS

Allan Thompson

Consulting Forester & Vermont
Woodlands Association President

Vermont Department of Taxes
Current Use Team

Heather Darby

UVM Extension Agronomic &
Soils Specialist

QUESTIONS?

contact AMANDA RYAN

a.ryan@vtfb.or or 802-578-0353